

3V3 WIDE OR CENTRAL ADVANTAGE

The neutral players spread out into the positions as shown in the diagram.
Going in one direction, you can use the two neutral players to help get crosses into the box
(when a cross comes from one side, the opposite wide "neutral" can get into the box to score).

However going in the opposite direction, the neutral is on the pitch and works as an extra forward making a 4v3.